

STRATEGIC PLAN of the Los Alamos JJAB, 2006-07

MISSION: Through diverse, collaborative, representation and communication, we strive to help youth feel connect, valued,	VISION: Youth involvement contributes to the value of Los Alamos County. Tolerance for imaginative ideas expands and enriches
--	---

GUIDING PRINCIPLES: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Strengthening the family; supporting core institutions;</li> <li>• Promoting delinquency prevention;</li> <li>• Intervening immediately when delinquent behavior occurs;</li> <li>• Establishing a system of graduated sanctions; and</li> <li>• Identifying and controlling the small percent of serious juvenile felony-</li> </ul>
--

Key Objectives:

- Measure 40 Developmental Assets of kids
  - Prepare media releases regarding PRIDE survey & 40 D. A.
  - Collaborate with youth and local organizations to help youth feel more
- October 2006

Key Objectives:

- Keep the JJAB Graduated Sanctions chart up-to-date and accurately represent what is occurring and what is needed in the County.
- Develop structures that allow youth to receive services without formally entering probation (i.e. lower level sanctions at lower level of offenses)

Key Objectives:

- Develop and implement web site
- Provide facilities for meetings, retreats, etc. with light refreshments
- Establish links with other contributing community organizations

Key Objectives:

- Disseminate e-mail to the parents of mid/high school youth
- Link to County and School websites
- Newspaper ads with JJAB website

Key Objectives:

- Develop the resources (financial and community) that will promote success in the goal areas
- Evaluate existing programs to ensure that they are addressing the issues and providing appropriate resources