

JUNTOS Murals Committee Meeting

August 11, 2007, 2PM

Española City Hall

Attendees: Benigno Sandoval, Nathana Bird, Andrew Herrera, Armando Rodriguez, Maurice de Segovia, Lori Heimdahl Gibson

Tuesdays are good to meet.

JUNTOS' theme is pro-active in developing community. . . open to all. The murals will be a constant message of "joining" with the communities.

Possible locations - High school gyms - LA, Esp., and Pojoaque

Andrew led a discussion of graffiti and gangs. Young people don't feel like they have a voice in the community. The need and want roots, purpose, direction. The murals could reach these kids.

Possible people to help:

- Robert Garcia, art teacher at EVHS
- Ellen Kaiper, teacher at EVHS - PSA - Andrew will talk with her.

Discussion of possible movies with JUNTOS themes:

- "Higher Learning"
- "Crash"
- "Color of Fear"

We need to recruit more people, more artists, etc. No second meeting scheduled yet.

Recorder: Lori Heimdahl Gibson, lorihg@swcp.com